

National Federation of NURSES

Save the date! May 11 & 12, 2010 in Chicago, Illinois

Welcome Reception 5 – 7pm, May 10, 2010

National Federation of Nurses LABOR ACADEMY

NFN's first annual Labor Academy exclusively for nurses in collective bargaining units from the State Nurses Associations of New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Montana, and Washington.

Be the first in your state to attend. Watch for more information coming soon!

ARE YOU A LEADER? Would you like to learn how to be more involved in making a difference for nursing and WSNA?

The Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare (E&GW) is sponsoring ten WSNA members to attend the first annual National Federation of Nurses Labor Academy.

TO BE CONSIDERED, PLEASE SUBMIT:

Your name, your facility, your recent involvement in WSNA, and a statement regarding how you would use the training to benefit your local unit and WSNA.

Send this information to Christine Himmelsbach MN,RN, WSNA Asst. Exec. Director of Labor Relations, at chimmelsbach@wsna.org

Your letter of application must be received at WSNA no later than Feb. 15, 2010.

The National Federation of Nurses is a national labor organization for registered nurses. It was founded in April 2009 on the principles of democracy, inclusiveness, transparency and equity. The organization is made up of and directed by its members; current members include the state nurses associations of Montana, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon & Washington.

More information is available at www.nfn.org